

BIBLE STUDY QUESTIONS

Today I am Reading _____

What is the main story or message of the chapter? This question is designed to help you understand the broader narrative or teachings of the chapter.

Who are the key characters involved, and how do they contribute to the story? Understanding characters and their roles can shed light on the events in the story.

What personal reflections do you have after reading this chapter? This question gives you an opportunity to connect the passage with your own life.

How do you interpret the main message or moral of this chapter? This question invites you to express your own interpretations and perspective as the Spirit guides you.

Are there any specific passages that stood out to you? Why? Focusing on specific lines can help you gain a deeper understanding of the text.

How might this chapter change your thinking or behavior? This encourages you to think about the practical application of the Bible's teachings in your day-to-day life.
