

WEEK AT A GLANCE NEHEMIAH CHAPTER 5

TUESDAY

Visit Time-Warp Wife – Visit timewarpwife.com to find this week's intro post & a link to the video.
Read Nehemiah 5:1–8 – Reflect on the injustice Nehemiah confronted & his heart for redemption.
Read the Study Guide – Consider how Nehemiah's actions align with the sacrificial love of Christ.
Begin Study Guide Questions – Focus on forgiveness, redemption, and how grace releases us from the weight of debt.
Journaling Prompt – Is there any “debt” you're holding onto—hurt, bitterness, or unmet expectations?

WEDNESDAY

Read Nehemiah 5:9–13 – Notice the people's response and their willingness to make things right.
Reflection Question – Can you recall a time when you felt true conviction? How did you respond?
Share in the group: What does true repentance look like to you? Is there a moment when you saw it clearly in your life or someone else's?

THURSDAY

Read Nehemiah 5:14–19 – Pay attention to Nehemiah's leadership and self-control.
Read John 14:26 and John 16:7–8 – What does this teach about the Holy Spirit's role in our lives?
Continue the Study Guide – Consider how conviction leads to repentance and change.

FRIDAY

Wrap Up the Study Guide – Review lessons from Nehemiah's leadership.
Reflect – What stands out most to you this week: conviction, compassion, or action?
Closing Journal Prompt – Where do you see God calling you to lead with love and mercy?
Read Darlene's Closing Thoughts – Visit the blog or check your inbox for the weekly encouragement.

SATURDAY

Additional Reading – Look up the stories of Zacchaeus, the Prodigal Son, David, Nineveh, Peter, and Paul.
Fill in the Prompt – What action did they take that proved their repentance?

SUNDAY - Rest and Worship – No assignments today. Let today be a day of spiritual renewal.

MONDAY

Wrap-Up Reflection – What impacted you most from this chapter?
Share in the group – What did God reveal to you through Nehemiah 5?
